PROCEDURE:

Employee Notification, Recruitment and Retention

4.1 Notify employees and the public about availability of accommodation for applicants with disabilities in the recruitment processes.

4.2 Notify successful applicants of policies accommodating employees with disabilities, when making offers of employment.

4.3 Inform employees of policies to support employees with disabilities.

- 4.4 Notify job applicants that accommodations are available in relation to the materials or processes used during the recruitment process, upon request.
- 4.5 If a selected applicant requests an accommodation, the Corporation shall consult with the applicant and provide or arrange for the provision of a suitable accommodation that takes into account the applicant's disability
- 4.6 The Corporation shall inform its employees of its policies used to support its employees with disabilities, including but not limited to, policies on the provision of job accommodations that take into account an employee's accessibility needs due to disability:
 - a) As required to new employees as soon as practicable after they begin their employment;
 - b) Whenever there is a change in policies on the provision of job accommodations that take into account an employee's accessibility needs due to a disability.

Accessible Formats

- 4.7 Provide or arrange for accessible formats and communication supports for information needed to perform job duties and information generally available to employees in the workplace, upon request.
- 4.8 In addition and where an employee with a disability requests it, the Corporation will consult with the employee to provide or arrange for the provision of accessible formats and communication supports for:
 - a) Information that is needed in order to perform the employee's job;
 - b) Information that is generally available to employees in the workplace; and
 - c) Consult with the employee making the request in determining the suitability of an accessible format or communication support.

Workplace Emergency Response

- 4.9 Provide individual workplace emergency response information to employees who have a disability, as required. Provide this information, with the employee's consent, to the person designated to provide assistance. Review this information when the employee moves to a different location, when the employee's overall accommodations needs or plans are reviewed and when the City reviews its general emergency response plans.

Individual Accommodation Plans

- 4.10 Develop and implement a written process for documentation of individual accommodation plans for employees with disabilities.
- 4.11 Consider accessibility needs of employees with disabilities and individual accommodation plans during the performance management process and when providing career development and advancement.

Return to Work

- 4.12 Develop and have in place a return to work process for employees who have been absent due to a disability and require disability-related accommodations in order to return to work.
